KIDS, GUNS GO TOGETHER

(GunsSaveLife.com) - Do you want to foster responsibility, respect, conscientiousness, self-discipline, reliability, humility, honesty, thoughtfulness in your child or grandchild?

Teach them to shoot.

Adolescents who grow up learning about shooting, hunting, and outdoor activities under the tutelage and supervision of responsible adult role models are more likely to turn out as the type of adults that are sober, careful, and think before they act.

That's not just us saying that; Boys who own legal firearms have much lower rates of delinquency and drug use than non-owners of guns, according to the US Department of Justice in a 1995 study.

Guns Save Life takes the education of children in the safe and legal use of guns seriously. We have partnered with many organizations over the years to promote gun safety, marksmanship, and other activities for youth that make them better and safer as adults.

In this issue of GunNews, you'll find stories on the NRA Youth Camp, held annually at Darnall's in Bloomington, and the young people who are learning (and as they get older, teaching) the safe and accurate shooting of all types of firearms, under the supervision and instruction of experts in each field. The grandfather of the young lady pictured on the left commented on our website:

"I was so pleased to see my grandkid's target in the story, but even happier to see the smile on her face. GSL is doing great work

National Rifle Association Youth Camp!

The nation's longest running NRA Youth Shooting Camp was held in late July, and Guns Save Life members were there, teaching the next generation of Americans how much fun shooting can be. Here, GSL Defense Training's attorney/instructor Steve Davis helps a young lady shoot her first .357 magnum rounds. Turn to page 12 for more photos.

Coming to GSL in September

CHAMPAIGN: Youth Night!

Bring your kids/grandkids/neighbor kids and their friends for the September 2015 Guns Save Life meeting in Champaign. We'll have indoor archery, a shooting simulator, Appleseed rifle instruction for young people, by young people, and other neat activities for the kids. We'll also be giving away a gun to one of the young participants, along with door prizes for the kids. Make it a family night out! Fun starts around 5:30pm
